

Deborah Peterson's Pantry

presents

“Meats...for the use of the table, ”

An Historic Foodways Symposium

Saturday, February 27th 2010

from 9:00am - 7:30pm

at

Pennsbury Manor

(Morrisville, PA)

The Archaeology of Philadelphia's Culinary Past, 1750-1850

Teagan Schweitzer, Ph.D. Candidate— U of PA

Domestic Animals in Colonial North America

Barbara Corson, VMD

18th & 19th Century Butchering and Meat Preservation Before Refrigeration

Dave Miller, Historian & Butcher

NEW! Open-hearth cooking workshops offered on Friday & Sunday by Past Masters in Early American Domestic Arts

$75 registration fee includes:

resource packet, light breakfast, lunch using period-correct receipts, potluck dinner, optional tour of the site, and speakers' fees

Visit www.deborahspantry.com for more detailed information or to register online!