

Past Masters in Early American Domestic Arts

Cooking Workshops at

Pennsbury Manor

Friday, February 26, 2010

Sunday, February 28, 2010

As a special feature, Past Masters in Early American Domestic Arts will hold workshops in cooperation with Deborah Peterson's Pantry. The workshop dates bracket the Pantry's Symposium, "Meat...for the use of the table." The workshops are a highly sought-after addition to the Symposium, a response to participants' requests from earlier Symposiums.

These hearth cooking workshops are hands-on, using the reconstructed kitchens at Pennsbury Manor as the classroom. You will prepare your meal and enjoy it with your fellow participants.

Friday, February 26—9:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Menu, with receipts provided at the workshop:

- To Stew Neats tongues Whole
- To make a Currey the India way
- To make an Olio Pye
- To make carbonaded Mutton
- Potted Pork

Sunday, February 28—9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Menu, with receipts provided at the workshop:

- A Liver Pudding boil'd
- To boil a Piece of Beef the Poor Man's Way
- To make Pork Griskins
- Turnip Pie
- Pullets, Capons, or Chickens in Bladders

Workshop Cost and Availability

Cost per workshop: $40.00. Please choose one workshop per person so all have an opportunity to take a class.

Classes are limited to 24 persons per class. Spaces are given on a first-come, first-served basis. If there are open spots left one week prior to the event we will open those spots to all. Our goal is to fill the classes, but to be fair to everyone.

Important Notes to Participants

Participants are urged to wear comfortable, warm modern clothing. The kitchens are not heated and February weather in Pennsylvania can be very cold.

Bring your apron, two dishtowels, a knife, and bring your beverage of choice (but no alcohol). Hot water will be available. Bread and cheese will be available for snacking till the workshop meal is ready to eat.

How to Register for the Workshops

A printable registration form for the workshops and for Deborah Peterson's Pantry Symposium "Meat...for the use of the table" on the Saturday between the workshops are available through Past Masters' website: www.pastmasters.info. Send the completed form and your payment to the address listed on the registration form. Online registration and payment is available for the workshops and for the Symposium on the Pantry website: www.deborahspantry.com.
